supervision:

Advisers and chaperones are responsible for the safety and supervision of their students at all times. Nightly room-checks will not be provided by camp directors or staff. Advisers and chaperones are also responsible for following their school and/or district policies for transportation and supervision during the conference.

meals:

All meals will be the responsibility of the attendees, advisers and chaperones. Ample meal times will be scheduled for off-site meals at any of the surrounding area locations. Restaurant guides may be found on the Doubletree Hotel website.

As conference activities start early in the morning and continue late into the evening, we strongly recommend attendees stay the hotel. Those attendees who wish to attend camp as a commuter are welcome and are required to check-in on Saturday, July 28 from 8:30am to 9:30am to receive their registration materials. Camp begins at 9:30am.

Each student is expected to attend every class, but attendance is not taken during camp.

The hotel now charges a daily rate for parking at the hotel. We're negotiating for a discounted rate.

Yearbooks CA accepts no responsibility for lost, stolen or damaged equipment brought to camp by participants.

medical care:

Advisers and chaperones are responsible for the safety, supervision and adherence to their school/district emergency policies and procedures.
